Quotes from Our Saints

"All my longing was and still is that since He has so many enemies and so few friends that these few friends be good ones."

St. Teresa of Avila

"Returning to the question of our love for one another, it seems quite unnecessary to commend this to you, for where are there people so brutish as not to love one another when they live together, are continually in one another's company, indulge in no conversation, association or recreation with any outside their house and believe that God loves us and that they themselves love God since they are leaving everything for His Majesty?
More especially is this so as virtue always attracts love, and I hope in God that, with the help of His Majesty, there will always be love in the sisters of this house.

It seems to me, therefore, that there is no reason for me to commend this to you any further."

St. Teresa of Avila

"Our Lord does not look so much at the greatness of our actions, or even at their difficulty, as at the love with which we do them".

St. Therese of Lisieux

"Merit does not consist in doing or giving much. It consists in loving much".

St. Therese of Lisieux

Novena Prayer
to St. Teresa of Avila

O blessed St. Teresa, who when on earth received from your Divine Spouse that wonderful promise that He would grant you whatever you ask, we beseech you now that you are with Jesus in paradise to intercede for us and obtain for us from God those blessings we hope for from His Infinite Goodness.

St. Teresa, pray for us.
